Hagan Scholarship Foundation

Helping students graduate college debt-free.

Up to $6,000 each semester

The Hagan Scholarship is a nationwide need-based merit scholarship designed to help rural students graduate college debt-free.

The Hagan Scholarship provides up to $48,000 over four years to help recipients obtain an undergraduate degree, and up to $24,000 over two additional years to obtain a graduate degree. Additional benefits include workshops to learn important life skills, study/travel abroad, and investment accounts to learn how to invest. Hagan Scholars have attended 429 colleges and universities located in 48 states.

Recipients must attend a public high school located in a city or town having fewer than 25,000 residents and whose outer boundary does not abut the outer boundary of another city or town. Eligible public high schools are listed on the HSF website.

Purpose

The Hagan Scholarship is designed to provide each recipient with the opportunity to obtain a four-year college education and graduate debt-free, and the opportunity to obtain a graduate degree. The workshops, study abroad and investment accounts provide recipients with a practical understanding of important life skills not typically covered in the school curriculum.

Purdue University

Recipient Responsibilities

1. Must maintain a 3.25 CGPA and a four year or less graduation schedule.
2. Must earn fourteen credit hours each fall semester and thirty credit hours each academic year excluding summer school.
3. Graduate students must maintain a 3.75 CGPA and earn 12 credit hours each semester.

To be fair to all recipients we will not make exceptions to the scholarship criteria.

Scholarship Particulars

1. The disbursement amount up to $6,000 each semester will be determined by HSF by taking the Total Cost of Attendance including tuition, fees, room, board, books, supplies, personal and transportation costs; then deducting the total dollar amount of ALL scholarships, awards, grants, waivers and one-half of recipient's EFC. Parents are not required to pay the EFC, the EFC is used only to determine the disbursement amount.
 2. The disbursement amount will be adjusted each semester to offset the expiration or loss of other scholarships, awards, grants, waivers and changes in the recipient's EFC.
 3. The undergraduate scholarship is renewable for up to seven additional consecutive semesters if the recipient fulfills the scholarship criteria and mandatory workshop responsibilities.
 4. First year recipients will receive $1,000 prior to college enrollment to purchase essential items for college not covered by the scholarship; computer, cell phone, clothing, office supplies, bedding, etc.
 5. Second year recipients will be provided with $1,000 to establish a personal brokerage account, and will be provided with a $20,000 HSF brokerage account to manage until graduation, in order to learn first-hand how to invest to achieve financial security.
 6. Third year recipients who have achieved a 3.50 CGPA are eligible for an all-expense paid study and travel abroad experience worth up to $8,000 or the funds can be used to study abroad for one semester.
 7. Recipients who have graduated college and achieved a 3.75 CGPA can extend their Hagan Scholarship up to four additional consecutive semesters to attend graduate school receiving $6,000 each semester. There is no limit to the number of credit hours a recipient can earn.
 8. Recipients must work 240 hours during the twelve months prior to fall semester college enrollment. Employment must be regularly scheduled work performed under supervision for compensation.
 9. There is no application fee or processing fee.
