Overview of Graduate Scholarship Particulars

Hagan Scholarship recipients who have graduated college while in the Hagan Scholarship Program and have fulfilled ALL Scholarship, Workshop and Schwab Account responsibilities, and have achieved a 3.75 CGPA, can apply for a Hagan Graduate Scholarship. The Hagan Graduate Scholarship is good for up to four additional consecutive semesters in college. The Hagan Graduate Scholarship provides up to $7,500 each fall and spring semester. Quarter and tri-semester school disbursements will be made when two semester school disbursements are made.

Applicants must apply for a Graduate Scholarship in the last semester of college prior to receiving their undergraduate degree, by December 1 or May 1 whichever is applicable, using the Link provided by HSF and posted on the Portal Homepage. Recipients of a Graduate Scholarship must enroll in graduate school at an eligible institution the first semester following receipt of their undergraduate degree.
